

Frequently Asked Questions

Regis College has a long history of proudly supporting veterans, service members, and their families. We understand the unique challenges of being a student veteran or military connected learner. Our Veterans Center provides personalized support to help you navigate the admissions process and the VA education benefits process. We invite you to join our close-knit supportive community.

Frequently Asked Questions for Veterans

Why Regis College?

• We advise students on how to access all of the veteran education benefits available to them, including but not limited to the Post 9/11 GI Bill® (Chapter 33), Vocational Rehabilitation and Education (Chapter 31), Dependents' Education Assistance (Chapter 35), the Montgomery GI Bill-Selected Reserve (Chapter 1606), and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Veterans Education benefits.

- We are a proud Yellow Ribbon School. A veteran or military connected student using the Post 9/11 GI Bill® who qualifies at 100% of the benefit is eligible for the Yellow Ribbon program, which may cover full tuition. Contact the veteran services office for more information.
- Regis College is an approved work site for VA Work Study. Veterans and military connected students using an approved VA education benefit are eligible for this program.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I know if I am eligible for VA Education benefits?

To determine your eligibility for VA education benefits, please visit www.va.gov and select "Apply for education benefits". This will allow you to see all of the available education benefits and select the one for which you may be eligible. If you are unclear which path is best, feel free to contact Veterans Service office for more information.

What support is available for Veterans and Military Connected students at Regis?

Regis College helps its veteran and military connected students navigate the VA educational benefit system. The Veterans Center also hosts events on campus to help our military connected students and veterans become integrated into the Regis community. Additionally, the Center for Student Engagement, Student Disability and Accessibility Services, and Academic Support and Advising are always available to assist students seeking to achieve their academic goals.

Can I access VA education benefits if I am the spouse/partner/ dependent child of a veteran?

To determine your eligibility for VA education benefits, please visit www.va.gov and select "Apply for education benefits". This will allow you to see all of the available education benefits and select the one for which you may be eligible.

What programs are eligible for VA education benefit coverage?

All programs listed in the current academic catalog are eligible for payment by VA education benefits. This means you can select any of our 30 undergraduate majors or 26 graduate programs and your VA education benefit will cover part or all of your tuition.

What does the Post 9/11 GI Bill® cover?

The Post 9/11 GI Bill® covers up to $26,381* in tuition costs. If eligible, you can use the Yellow Ribbon Program which will cover the difference and your tuition for Regis College is $0. The Post 9/11 GI Bill® also provide a monthly housing allowance and a book stipend.

Who do I contact for more information?

Contact Nick Lanier, manager of veteran services, via email at nicholas.lanier@regiscollege.edu or call 781-768-7207. We look forward to helping you take the next step in achieving your academic goals.

*For Academic Year 2022-2023.